8th BSH Heart Failure Nurse and Healthcare Professional Study Day 2018 – Information

The programme has been designed by Mrs Jayne Masters and Dr Jenny Weistand. The day aims to provide evidence-based knowledge from leading UK specialists in heart failure management and in-depth discussion around particularly challenging and controversial management issues facing nurses and other healthcare professionals caring for patients with heart failure. It is designed to educate and interest heart failure nurses, and will be of interest to nurses, both early in their role and those with more experience, as well as other healthcare professionals. We are expecting to attract around 130 delegates and about 6 exhibiting companies.

Date/venue

The meeting will take place on Wednesday 20 June 2018 at The Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET) Birmingham: Austin Court, 80 Cambridge Street, Birmingham, B1 2NP (telephone: 0121 600 7500; website: www.theiet.org).

Registration

BSH members are entitled to a subsidised registration fee. The registration fee for all options includes scientific meeting attendance and catering as indicated on the programme. Travel and accommodation are not included.

Discount

BSH members attending this meeting on Wednesday 20 June 2018 are entitled to a discounted registration fee for the 10th BSH Heart Failure Day for Revalidation and Training on Tuesday 19 June 2018. Further details are available on the registration form.

- BSH member
- Where financial considerations would otherwise prevent them attending the meeting
- Do not have access to a travel budget and are unable to reclaim travel funds from other sources
- Will be able to provide a receipt for the travel costs for reimbursement by BSH after the meeting.

Funding

If you are a healthcare professional supporting patients affected by or at risk of cardiovascular disease why not join the British Heart Foundation Alliance. Members of the Alliance can access learning and development opportunities including funding to attend training courses and conferences relevant to cardiovascular care. Join for free at www.bhf.org.uk/alliance.

If you are a member of the British Association for Nursing in Cardiovascular Care (BANCC) you may be able to secure funding (maximum £250) from their professional development fund.

BSH membership

If you wish to join the BSH, you can apply for membership at the same time as registering, thus benefiting from the reduced membership registration fee. The membership fee is £35 for nurses and research fellows, and £45 for all other healthcare professionals. If you pay by standing order there is a £5 discount. Please consult the BSH website (www.bsh.org.uk) for details, complete the membership application form and send it with this registration form to the BSH Secretariat.

Call for poster abstracts

We invite BSH members to display a poster. Suggested topics include:

- your heart failure service
- your heart failure-related work
- local heart forums
- how you have developed an aspect of your service
- how your service works (including what works well/ lessons learned)
- sharing of best practice.

Please indicate on your meeting registration form if you wish to submit a poster and send a 200-word abstract outlining your poster content to sam@bsh.org.uk by 14 May 2018; now extended to 25 May 2018.

A limited number of posters will be displayed in the exhibition area and space will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.
